COMBAT STRATEGY
#1 weapon: Mind Sliver deals 1d6 psychic damage and forces the target to subtract 1d4 from their next saving throw. Target an enemy with _Mind Sliver to soften their brain. On your next turn (or an ally's turn), that enemy will likely fail their save against a bigger spell like Dissonant Whispers or an effect from an ally's spells

Dissonant Whispers Peel: If an enemy gets close to you or an ally cast Dissonant Whispers. If they fail the save the enemy takes psychic damage and must immediately use its reaction to run away helping alows allies to take an Opportunity Attack as the enemy flees.

\Shield Panic Button Keep one of your two spell slots specifically for the Shield reaction. It will boost your AC to 17 for a full round so you can survive

Tactical Advice: Social Combat With a +6 to Intimidation and Persuasion, you can mentalist people to doing things. Use _Minor Illusion_ or _Telepathy_ to create distractions or plant thoughts in guards' heads before a fight even starts. You can often "win" an encounter before a single rapier is drawn.
Use telepathy to get into the minds of others.
